

SERVICE ACADEMY NOMINATIONS

The five United States Service Academies provide outstanding opportunities for qualified men and women to receive one of the most respected college educational experiences in the nation. They offer appointments to highly qualified individuals who meet eligibility requirements and show evidence of character, scholarship, leadership, physical aptitude, medical fitness, goals and motivation. Members of Congress are allowed five vacancies at each of the Service Academies. For each vacancy, members of Congress may nominate up to 10 candidates who meet the eligibility requirements established by law. The student remains in one of the vacancy slots until that student graduates.

APPLICANT QUALIFICATIONS

The following are qualifications to be eligible for consideration for nomination through US Senator Kay Hagan:

1. Applicant must be a United States citizen and legal resident of North Carolina.
2. Applicant must be at least 17 years old, but no older than 23 on July 1 of the year he or she enters the academy.
3. Applicant must have high academic standing and participate in extracurricular and/or community activities that demonstrate leadership qualities.
4. Applicant must have received competitive scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or the American College Testing exam (ACT).
